REGGAE ACOUSTIC SOUL POP

Born in Jamaica and based in Los Angeles, Sashani is a singer-songwriter with range. Her catalog moves across reggae, acoustic, soul, and pop, from inspirational anthems to personal songs of empowerment and upbeat tracks that move. Her music is rooted in love, peace, faith, and purpose. ★

"So Boy Bye" is out now on her YouTube channel, with new singles arriving through 2026 such as "You Are Still A Rose" and "Jamaica Shine," leading into her debut EP. Sashani credits Sony recording artist and vocal coach Summer Watson as the catalyst behind this chapter, the mentor who recognized her voice and championed her path.

Sashani's roots are in performance. She started out as a dancer and choreographer, performing in numerous shows and musicals and earning dance awards along the way, with training at the Jamaica School of Dance. She studied dance and musical theater at university, earning her degree with a focus on musical theater and film & television communications.

She is also an actor, with credits including A Christmas Winter Song, an NAACP-nominated film alongside veteran Stan Shaw and Grammy-winning singer Ashanti.

Sashani is a vocal supporter of asthma and allergy awareness, a cause shaped by her own lived experience and one she carries into her platform as an artist.
